Technical drawing of a stage set for the play "The Glass Menagerie". The drawing shows a perspective view of the stage. A central staircase leads up to a platform. A silhouette of a person in a hat and coat stands on the stairs. The stage is illuminated by four spotlights, two on the left and two on the right, casting beams of light onto the stage floor. The stage floor is marked with a grid of lines. The drawing includes dimensions and labels in Polish. The top dimension is 12.00, with sub-dimensions 4.00 and 8.00. The bottom dimension is 14.00, with sub-dimensions 3.00 and 11.00. The right side dimension is 12.00. The left side dimension is 9.00. The central platform is labeled "scenariusz" and "scenariusz" (script). The stage floor is labeled "podłoga" (floor). The stage walls are labeled "ściana tył" (back wall) and "ściana boczna" (side wall). The stage floor is marked with a grid of lines. The drawing includes dimensions and labels in Polish.
